

Season 1 Episode 10

F.C.Ceased

A large convention is held in downtown San Francisco. The DDD News cameras roll and George Ferrier is on the screen. George Ferrier said, "Hello, I am George Ferrier here from DDD News. I am at the San Francisco Saturday Morning Cartoon Convention where millions of Saturday Morning Cartoon fans from all over the world gather here in this one spot to celebrate their favorite Sat AM shows." The cameras show people cosplaying as various characters from various different Saturday Morning shows. King Arcturus is there and he is dressed as a samurai penguin. Arcturus said, "This is it. I am going to win this contest with my larger than life costume entry." Arcturus gets in with the other contestants that entered. Their costumes look poorly made compared to the costume Arcturus is wearing. Arcturus said, "I am going to win this one for sure this time."

The judges take their seats and they cast their votes. They get ready to announce the winner. George Ferrier is watching it and he is still on the air. George Ferrier said, "This is it. This is our moment of truth. We are going to see who the winner is..." The votes are counted and the vote counter said, "The winner is Lil Ralphie from here in our very own city of San Francisco." Arcturus' triangle eyes go big. Arcturus goes to the judges and he said, "How could that foolish little boy win? My costume is far better than his." One of the judges said, "That's because your costume looks too good to be made by you. Ralphie's costume was made all by himself." The judge points out that the costume is poorly made. Arcturus said, "I made this costume by myself with no help too." The judge said, "I don't believe you." People celebrate the winner. Arcturus thinks, "This is stupid. This is an outrage. People go overboard with these Saturday Morning cartoons and they think they are the best. Let's see what we do without them."

In an office at the FCC, there is chaos. People crowd around a government session and one of the people said, "How could you do this to the stations? They don't make much money and you are making them pay more." Another one said, "What am I going to watch with my daughter?" The president of the FCC has the center stage and he said, "I know what we are going to do. We have no other choice but to call an election." The people vote and the next day, the new FCC president is announced.

DDD News comes on TVs all over the world. George Ferrier is on the screen. George Ferrier said, "Hello, I am George Ferrier here for DDD News. There has been chaos over at the FCC over budget cuts from an unknown third party. As a result, an election was held and the winner of this election goes by the name of Arcturus." King Arcturus is shown in a suit with a tie and he sits at the head of the FCC office. King Arcturus said, "As my first ruling as the fairly elected president of the FCC, I declare all Saturday Morning Cartoons aired on network channels to be replaced by awesome educational shows that star me. Tune in this Saturday Morning folks and watch, Arcturus as the wild Alligator Observer." Arcturus is shown in the wild fighting a dozen alligators. Arcturus said, "Or Space Arcturus..." Arcturus is shown walking on the moon and he looks around and sees no one is there." Arcturus (on the moon) said, "Hello, is anybody here." Arcturus said, "This will be topped off in the end by me announcing the current values on the stock exchange." Arcturus is shown in front of the stock market numbers and he is announcing how low their values are." Arcturus said, "All of this will be on next Saturday Morning on all your favorite networks. This will be the best Saturday Morning ever."

Justice Knight is in his lair and he looks at a TV in there showing the current news report. Justice Knight said, "Cartoons have been fun for people of all ages for generations before and for generations to come. Animation is a lot of hard work and people deserve to watch it. Something has to be done. This is some kind of plan for Arcturus to brainwash the people of the world. Krysta! Yuio!" Krysta and Yuio show up. Justice Knight said, "We need to pay a visit to San Francisco at an unknown time but in the early 21st century. Children's entertainment is at stake." Justice Knight activates their time portal and the three heroes jump in.

They come out in a park that appears to be in the early 2000's. Justice Knight looks at his watch and it says that it is 7 AM on Saturday Morning. Justice Knight said, "My watch says that it is 7AM on Saturday Morning when the Arcturus shows are scheduled to start. I think they might be starting now. This is going to be a perfect time for us to strike." Yuio said, "Don't mind me asking but, isn't it a bit late to prevent the brainwashing of millions of kids?" Justice Knight said, "No. It is not too late. Instead the kids will wake up and they will watch the shows and they will be of me fighting the evil and wicked King Arcturus. The kids will see how much of a hero I am and how much of a fraud Arcturus is." Yuio said, "I got it." Krysta said, "How are we going to strike?" Justice Knight takes out a watch and it projects a holographic image of the inside of the FCC building. Justice Knight said, "The FCC building is highly protected and fortified by God knows what. We will break into the sewer and we will work our way into the bathroom of the building. Once we are in, we can get to the studio rooms and interrupt their broadcasts."

Justice Knight and his two friends stand around a manhole. Justice Knight takes out his ruby red sword of Justice and he cuts around the manhole and it falls into the sewer. Krysta said, "You know you could have just lifted that off the ground." Justice Knight said, "I want to be a better example to kids and it is more fun this way." They jump down and into the sewer.

They splash into a stream of sewage water and they swim through it. They get to a ladder and they climb up it. Justice Knight sticks his head out in a bathroom and there is a middle aged woman trimming her nose hairs and she sees Justice Knight's head stick out of the toilet. The lady screams and she said, "Pervert!" She starts smacking Justice Knight in the head. Justice Knight retreats and he is back with his friends in the sewer and he said, "Wrong place." Yuio tries another one and he appears in a toilet in a public place. A door opens up and Yuio catches a glimpse of the place the bathroom is at. He sees it is at a Mexican buffet and someone just entered the bathroom and is going to use the toilet Yuio's head is in. Yuio zips back into the sewer and he jumps into Justice Knight's arms. Yuio shakes in fear. Yuio said, "You don't want to see what I just saw." Justice Knight said, "That's good because we found the right bathroom." They climb up the right ladder and they end up in an FCC bathroom.

They climb out of the toilet and they walk out of the bathroom and they hide behind a wall. They see guards in armor patrol the halls. Justice Knight quietly said, "Follow me and wait for my signals." Yuio said, "What signals?" Krysta elbows Yuio in the gut. Justice Knight rolls out ahead and he hides under a signpost. The sign reads that the door leads to an educational plant show. Yuio tries to hide but the guards get a glimpse of his tail. They arm their swords and they head for the heroes. Justice Knight pushes Yuio into the studio room and Justice Knight draws his sword and he duels with the guards. Yuio is in the plant room and he is surrounded with plants. Yuio said, "This place is not that bad." Yuio breathes a large whiff and he sniffs a weird looking plant. Yuio begins to sneeze. Yuio said, "I must be allergic to these plants." Yuio tries to hold in his sneeze. He can't hold it in anymore so he runs outside and he releases his fiery sneeze and he melts all the armor off the guards. The guards are left there in their underwear completely defenseless. Justice Knight said, "Thanks Yuio. Now guards, you will show us to Arcturus."

The guards take them into the room Arcturus is in. Arcturus is broadcasting a show about wildlife. The heroes enter the place and Arcturus sees them. Just as this happens, Jason (from Jason and Mason) gets up and he sits in the living room and he turns on the TV. Jason said, "Oh yeah, cartoons on Saturday." Jason turns on the TV to see Arcturus' boring nature show. Jason said, "This show sucks and it is only 8 in the morning. I'm going back to bed." Jason goes back to bed just as Justice Knight appears on the screen. Justice Knight struts down the set and he confronts Arcturus and Justice Knight said, "Stand down Arcturus." Arcturus said, "Justice Knight. What a pleasant surprise." Justice Knight draws his sword. Justice Knight looks into the camera and Justice Knight said, "Don't worry kids. This is not your regular Saturday Morning. I will make sure all your Saturdays are going to be good for the rest of eternity." Arcturus said, "That sounds very bold of you." Arcturus claps his hands and all the robotic animals from the nature show enter the scene and they begin to attack the heroes. Justice Knight fights them off and Krysta hides behind Justice Knight while Yuio flies over the place in fear.

Justice Knight blocks an attack from a robotic lion and then he punches it in the face. He blocks more attacks from animals and Justice Knight fights them off. Justice Knight points his sword at Arcturus. Justice Knight said, "I am no match for anything you have." Arcturus said, "You and what army?" Arcturus points around showing that more of those guards are in the studio and they have cannons and swords aimed at Justice Knight. Justice Knight is handcuffed and so is Krysta. Yuio is still flying close to the ceiling. Yuio hides in a tall tree. Guards try shaking the tree. The guard looks at Arcturus and he said, "He's stuck in there very good.” Arcturus said, “Try cutting down the tree.” The guard said, “We can’t since it is made out of reinforced titanium. You insisted that we use it here rather than in the prisons.” Arcturus said, “Whoa me.”

Justice Knight and Krysta are thrown in the FCC prison. They look around and they see people that violated FCC laws. Krysta said, “This is the saddest prison I have ever seen. Afterall, this is just entertainment.” Justice Knight said, “To us it may be but to these people, it is their lives. They live for this stuff. Most people in America would rather spend their time watching entertainment than doing work.” Justice Knight looks some more and he sees the Samural Penguins from the show, Samural Penguins are there. Justice Knight said, “Samurai Penguins?” One of them said, “Our show was number one on the 4Idiots block on the Rox Network up until that Arcturus came in and pulled the plug on us and arrested us.” Then they see Pouch Animals, Dinosaur Sphere X characters, anthropomorphic birthday presents, then they even see Springboom Sprungpants there. Krysta said, “Why are you here.” Springboom said, “The FCC does not like my show because it is not educational nor informational.” Krysta said, “That really is sad. We have your show in Azureis. I think it is very funny.” Springboom said, “That’s nice.” Justice Knight grabs onto the bars of the prison. Justice Knight said, “There is always a flaw in these prisons. That’s how the heroes get out.” Krysta said, “Or from an outside source. Who do we know on the outside that could help us?” Justice Knight goes to his communicator watch and he tries to call Yuio. Yuio is stuck in the tree and Arcturus’ men are trying to get him down from there. Yuio’s phone rings and he answers it. Justice Knight said, “Yuio, we are stuck in the prison. We need you to get us out of here.” Yuio said, “No can do. I am petrified with fear being stuck in this titanium tree. You go on without me as I spend the rest of my days up here.” Krysta said, “It looks like we won’t get anything out of him.” Justice Knight said, “There must be another way. If only we can strike our way out of here.” Justice Knight takes out his sword and he strikes the metal bars out of anger. The metal bars to all the prison cells shatter like glass and everyone in there is free to escape. Justice Knight said, “I didn’t think the bars would break that easy.” Krysta said, “Let’s get out of here.”

Justice Knight and an army of Saturday Morning rejects rush out of the prison and guards surround them. The characters pile up on the guards and crush them. Justice Knight fights a few of them off. They barge into the current studio and Arcturus is in a space program. They are on the surface of the moon. Justice Knight aims his sword at Arcturus. Justice Knight said, “I have an army this time. You lose.” Arcturus said, “You don’t really think you’ll save Saturday Mornings for everyone, do you?” Justice Knight said, “Justice and triumph doth thee for... what should I say.” Springboom said, “Ah, let’s just go and beat him up then.” The Saturday Morning rejects raise their arms and they run in. Arcturus summons more of his guards. A full out war breaks out. Justice Knight fights off a few of the guards and he spies Arcturus. Arcturus draws out his blue sword of injustice. Arcturus aims it at Justice Knight. Then the Samurai Penguins jump in and they fight Arcturus. They move fast and they kick him in the back of one of his legs. Arcturus slashes them off. Arcturus heads for Justice Knight and they duel. They clash their contradictory swords together.

Krysta is standing on the sidelines and she looks through the action and chaos. She sees the walls are painted to look like space. She spots that one of them is a door. Krysta enters the door and she is lead to a control room where a large control panel that is unattended. Krysta gets to the controls. One of the guards said, "How many hours have people actually spent watching your shows?" A character from Dinosaur Sphere X crushes a prop and he said, "IT'S OVER 9000!" He joins his wrists together and he said, "Hydoken" and he fires a ball of energy at that guard. The anthropomorphic presents rain down on some of the guards. Then, a giant guard robot that looks like he came out of an anime enters the scene. He grabs most of the Saturday Morning rejects and he places them in a prison in his body. Justice Knight sees this happen and he still duels Arcturus. Arcturus said, "Give up, Justice Knight. You lose." Justice Knight locks his blade with Arcturus' blade. Justice Knight said, "If there is one thing I know, it is that you can't mess with kids on Saturday Morning." Justice Knight spins and Arcturus blocks his attacks. Justice Knight knees Arcturus in the gut and documents fly out. Justice Knight grabs the documents and he looks over them. Justice Knight said, "These documents are declarations of ownership. It says here that you've owned the FCC for months now and you have been cutting money for everyone." Justice Knight shows the information on the screen. Feds in Washington look at this and they look at each other and they show handcuffs.

The Japanese robot aims its missiles for Justice Knight and it open fires on Justice Knight. Justice Knight jumps in the air and he dodges a missile and he kicks one of them away and he slices one in half. Justice Knight lands on the floor in front of the robot. Justice Knight aims his sword upwards in a defensive position. The robot is about to launch a barrage of attack but the floor shifts. The floor opens up and the robot falls down in the floor where it is smashed into a million pieces. The Saturday Morning rejects are free. Arcturus said, "What kind of change of luck is this?" Justice Knight said, "This is exactly what I've been telling you." Another hole opens in the floor and Arcturus is standing over the hole. He stays in the air for a few seconds and he looks down and he falls into the pit. The boarder wall between this studio and the other one opens and Yuio enters the place. Yuio said, "Did we win?" Justice Knight said, "I think we did." The Feds show up and they handcuff Arcturus. The Saturday Morning rejects leave the studio and they mumble about things. Krysta and Yuio stand by Justice Knight's side. Justice Knight said, "I think we've won this one."

DDD News comes on and George Ferrier is on the screen. George Ferrier said, "Hello, I am George Ferrier of DDD News. The President of the FCC has been removed from office and he is being replaced by William Hundt. It seems there was some action Saturday Morning after all when the Justice Knight and all our other favorites from Saturday Morning gave quite a fight against Arcturus." Screen shows footage of the battle. George Ferrier said, "However, not very many kids actually watched this because they saw the beginning of the block and were bored with what they saw and they just went back to bed like what I do every Saturday Morning. It seems that the rating were so low that most Saturday Morning blocks are going to get cancelled and replaced with reality shows."

Justice Knight, Krysta, and Yuio are watching this and Krysta said, "That sucks. We put up a fight better than anyone else and they still are getting rid of cartoons and replacing them with reality shows." Justice Knight said, "Trends come and go. I've been around for thousands of years and I've seen billions of trends. The important thing was that justice was served against Arcturus and everyone at the FCC got their jobs back and we showed those few people that watched the importance of standing up for what is right." Yuio said, "I'm going to play some video game. Those are always fun." Krysta said, "I am going to read a comic. Thank God the FCC does not have jurisdiction over those."
